DEACONS

On Sunday, February the 13th, the Deacons made a special delivery to our church's shut-in group.

Each individual received a festive gift bag with homemade sugar and oatmeal raisin cookies made with love by Katherine Richards, as well as a hand-written card and some Dove chocolates. Valentine's Day cards were sent to those who don't receive visitors or are long-distance.

The Deacons call and send note cards to the church members who are unable to attend services regularly due to health issues on a monthly basis. Visitations have been restricted due to health concerns and the deacons follow nursing homes guidelines for safety procedures. Masks are worn during visits or drop-offs.

SESSION REPORT

Session met Thursday evening February 24. The trustees reported that the leak in the foyer and the boiler were fixed. They are working on a facility plan which will include painting around the church; work on the bell tower; new flooring coverings for the sanctuary and refurbishing our organ. The facility plan will include time lines and financing options.

The treasurer reported that investments were down last month as was experienced by everyone. Thirty two of 162 persons have paid their per capita so far this year.

Rev. Brand gave education on Presbyterian foundations and revised the policy for church cancellations during emergencies. Please remember to give the church office your preferences for how you would like to be notified.

Mission collected $120 from Cents-Ability to purchase special choice items for our friends at the food pantry. Other giving opportunities the Mission council approved were to Hand to the Plow ministries in Haiti; the Kirkmont Center for repairs and moneys to pantry for diapers.

Hospitality and fellowship announced plans for Rev. Brand's installation on March 13 and a Lenten program on Tuesdays starting on March 22 which will include soup dinner and a movie. It was noted that additional foods will be provided that are both kid friendly and additions to soup. The movies will be selections from the series 'Joan of Arcadia.'
